

The People's Glossary of Regime Media Translations

Fall 2025 Edition – A Handy Decoder Ring for the American News Cycle

If you've ever read the headlines and thought, 'Wait, that's not what just happened,' this guide is for you. Think of it as a translation dictionary: what the regime media says, and what they actually mean. Use it at your next dinner table argument, hand it to your co-worker, or tape it to the fridge. Share freely.

What They Say	What It Really Means
"Security Measures"	Civil liberties suspended; police given toys they don't need.
"Election Integrity"	Making sure fewer people can vote.

“Border Protection”	Human rights violations with better branding.
“Economic Reforms”	Tax cuts for billionaires, scraps for everyone else.
“Patriot Act Renewal”	We still don’t trust you, citizen.
“Public-Private Partnership”	Government handouts to corporations with no receipts.
“Job Creators”	Billionaires hoarding cash while your rent goes up.
“Stability in the Region”	Endless war with a prettier press release.
“Enhanced Interrogation”	Torture.
“Shared Sacrifice”	You sacrifice; they share champagne.
“Restoring Order”	Quiet Civil War
“Targeted Enforcement”	ICE raids on neighborhoods, schools, and workplaces.
“Continuity of Government”	Yes, it happened.
“Securing the Homeland”	Turning immigrant families into political props.
“Emergency Measures”	Martial law lite.
